

Gibbston House Bed & Breakfast

Dave and Jenny Kendall, Gibbston House B&B
53a Gibbston Back Road, Gibbston Valley, RD 1

Gibbston House Bed & Breakfast is located in a vineyard in the beautiful Gibbston Valley, which is aptly called the "Valley of Vines".

The Gibbston Valley is an integral part of New Zealand's most spectacular wine region and is world famous for the Pinot Noir wines it produces. To wake up to views of manicured gardens, magical valley views of the vineyards, and the mountains beyond is a very special experience.

This magnificent property can be found just 15 minutes from Queenstown International Airport, 25 minutes from Queenstown Centre, 10 minutes from Arrowtown and 15 minutes from Cromwell.

Gibbston House B&B offers superb accommodation overlooking spectacular vineyards and has extensive views towards the Queenstown and Cardrona ski fields and the mouth of the Kawarau Gorge at Nevis Bluff.

Accommodation

This lovely home has something to offer everyone. Each room is well appointed, self-contained with its own en-suite and boasts spectacular views. Each room can be accessed from the main house or an entry door from the car parking area.

The main house offers a well-appointed guest lounge and dining facilities that overlook vineyards to the mountains beyond. BBQ facilities and outside tables and chairs are available.

The Nevis Apartment is self contained and has a bedroom / lounge area and en-suite, washing machine and clothes drier. Residents can enjoy being self-sufficient and still enjoy the B&B privileges.

The Vineyard Studio is a beautifully appointed self-contained apartment with separate access from the car park. The apartment boasts a queen sized bedroom suite, lounge suite, dining table, large TV with surround sound, a separate fully equipped kitchen with full size fridge freezer, microwave, front loading washing machine, drier and heaps of storage space. The separate en-suite has underfloor heating, heated towel rails and hair drying facilities.

The Vineyard Apartment can be leased separately or coupled to the Nevis to accommodate large families or the Bridal Party who may wish to be self-contained.

We only cater for 4 guests at any one time, so your privacy and your choice of room makes this boutique accommodation so intimate.

Activities

Jenny and Dave with their exceptional knowledge and experiences offer superb accommodation and can help you plan your honeymoon activities. We offer the perfect launching pad to experience central Otago.

Gibbston House B&B is located adjacent to spectacular cycle paths where you can ride the gorge, visit the bungy or meander on to Arrowtown and Queenstown, known as the adventure capital of New Zealand. Private access tracks at the rear of the property lead to magnificent walking and off road tracks that take in some of the most spectacular scenery in the world. It is also an easy drive to several International Golf Courses.
